

Polio and Post Polio Syndrome (PPS)

ORGANISATION	DESCRIPTION
Associazione Nazionale Polio E Sindrome Post- Polio Website: www.postpolio.it	The Italian national polio and Post Polio association. Checked June 12
Global Polio Eradication Initiative Website: www.polioeradication.org	Website containing information about the worldwide polio vaccination program, global case count and assessed risk by country. Checked June 12
International Ventilator Users Network Website: www.ventusers.org	A USA-based resource for users of home mechanical ventilation, their families and the healthcare community. Checked June 12
Northern Ireland Polio Fellowship Website: www.polio-ni.org	A membership organisation providing information, support and social functions for people with polio in Northern Ireland. Checked June 12
Polio Australia Website: www.polioaustralia.org.au	Polio Australia provides information and facilitates service provision across Australia ensuring that people with polio have access to appropriate healthcare and the support required to maintain independence and make informed choices. Checked June 12
Polio Children Website: www.poliochildren.org	A UK and USA charity supporting children with polio in various parts of the world. Checked June 12
Polio Place Website: www.polioplace.org	A service of Post Polio Health International, Polio

ORGANISATION	DESCRIPTION
	Place is an internet repository for polio facts. Search for historical artefacts, medical information, and practical advice for living with polio or browse the resource library. Checked June 12
Polio Survivors Network Website: www.poliosurvivorsnetwork.org.uk	Polio Survivors Network is a UK-based charity providing support and information for people with polio and Post Polio Syndrome. Checked June 12
Polio Today Website: www.poliotoday.org	PolioToday.org is published by the Salk Institute for Biological Studies. The website is designed to raise awareness of Post-Polio Syndrome and to be a resource for people with polio. Checked June 12
Post Polio Syndrome Central Website: www.skally.net/ppsc/	A USA site listing internet resources for people with polio, including newsgroups, events and discussion lists. Checked June 12
Post-Polio Health International Website: www.post-polio.org	Post-Polio Health International aims to enhance the lives and independence of people with polio through education, advocacy, research and networking. The website includes resources for the public and health professionals. Checked June 12
Post-Polio Network (NSW) Inc. Website:  </td> <td data-bbox="> The Network provides advice, information and

ORGANISATION	DESCRIPTION
polionetwork.org.au	support to people with polio and PPS in Australia. Checked June 12
Post-Polio Network RSA Website: www.postpolio.co.za	Post-Polio Network RSA offers membership, support and information for people with polio and PPS in South Africa and other African countries. Checked June 12
Post-Polio Support Group – Eire Website: www.ppsg.ie	The PPSG provides information to help raise awareness and improve the lives of people with polio and PPS in Ireland. Checked June 12
Scottish Post Polio Network Website: www.sppn.org.uk	Website for the Scottish Post-Polio network. Checked June 12
Whatever happened to polio? The Smithsonian National Museum of American History Website: www.americanhistory.si.edu/polio	Website on the USA polio epidemics, the virus and vaccine and polio today, with historical photos. Checked June 12